Retail Quality, Corporate Style, Premium Comfort.

The Swanky Socks brand has sold millions of premium, quality retail socks. Now, a familiar brand globally in the corporate market, we offer you a high-quality, fully custom sock to enhance your branded marketing experience.

Have trust in producing custom socks in collaboration with Swanky Socks.

Pantone Matching

Confidently, we have one of the most extensive ranges of yarns available to market. With access in multiple regions and over 1,000 yarn colours available in stock, we're find your perfect match. We also have a fully custom-dyed service available if required.

Sustainable

As a brand, we're always discovering new ways to share our vision of producing more sustainable and eco-friendly socks. With a focus on natural materials like Merino wool, bamboo and cotton, we believe we are doing our part to offer you the highest quality socks that are as good to the world as they are to your feet.

Ethical

We pride ourselves knowing where our products are made and the conditions they are produced in. Along with third party audits, we too as a company provide our own factory audits each year to ensure high levels of production, quality control and ethics are maintained.

Delivery

With our global manufacturing network, Swanky Socks ensures your custom orders arrive on time, every time. Our efficient production can accommodate urgent orders without compromising quality.
